

WHEN YOU PRAY, PLEASE REMEMBER:

Denise Jurkovich – Cancer treatments, Joan Hamilton – loss of sister, Bonnie Lewis’ sister Janet Hudson – recovery and strength after a few falls, Shelia’s sister Connie – surgery recovery, Vivian’s sister – Leukemia, Kayla Eagon – to remain cancer free, Mark Yurina – ongoing struggles with shoulder. Please remember those who are struggling with declining health, or are battling their own spiritual battles. Please remember the lost of our fold and always be on the watch for a way to encourage them.

(Please let Jamie Helmick know of any updates needed)

Scripture Reading for Sunday Morning's Lesson

Matthew 23:24-28

Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel. 25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. 26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. 27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. 28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

What draws us to know and love God? (1 John 4:19)

Is God working hard to find religious people or lost people? (Lk 5:32)

Who should we be imitating? (Eph. 5:1-2)

Why am I tempted to overlook those less fortunate? (James 2:1-4)

What changes can I make in my approach with the lost?

What were some of the names people called Jesus because of His love for the lost? (Mt. 11:19, Luke 7:34, John 10:19-20)

One person I can reach out to this week, that I have overlooked in the past: _____

When and how I am going to reach out: _____

Please consider:

The holidays are a good time for us to remember those that may not have much family around to celebrate with. This will be a great opportunity to reach out to those and to spend time with folks that could really use encouragement in the absence of their loved ones. This is just one of many ways we can live out the instruction given by the Hebrew written when instructed to, "remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them that suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body."

Please remember to welcome our new brother and sister in the faith: Barb Stephens and her son Dale Stephens both from here in Barnesville. They have been attending with us for some time now.

Also to welcome Jeff & Denise Jurkovich as new members here at West Main Street. They come from the Northern Kentucky Church of Christ and have recently relocated to the Cambridge area.

Visiting with us? Please fill out a visitors card and put it in the collection plate when it is passed or hand it off to a member so we may have record of your attendance. Please come again!
