Hebrews 6:19a Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil

Eph 4:9-13

9 (What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions[c]?10 He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.) 11 So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, 12 to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up 13 until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

Paid in Full

By Joe Chesser

Years ago, when the final payment was made on an installment loan, the bank would stamp in large letters on the original application "Paid in Full!" In this electronic age I don't know if financial institutions still do that, but even if we don't get a piece of paper with the "Paid in Full!" stamp on it, when a loan is finally paid off, it sure feels good. Making that final payment and having a debt "Paid in Full!" is just plain exciting.

Jesus told a story about a man who owed such a huge debt that he could never have paid it off (Matthew 18). I mean he owed a man millions of dollars, and that was in the 1st century! When the debt came due, all the man could do was fall on his knees and beg for mercy. Try that at your bank. It doesn't work. But that time the unheard of happened. The man felt sorry for the one who owed him so much and stamped the parchment (or whatever) "Paid in Full!" He cancelled the entire debt! The balance was now $0.00. If that had been you, how grateful would you have felt?

And that's just about money. We owe a debt that we can never pay. Even if we have millions of dollars, billions of dollars, we could never pay the debt we owe. It simply is not within our power to pay off our debt because our debt is not about something as frivolous as money. Our debt involves sin, which by nature makes us objects of God's wrath (Ephesians 2:3). And yet, because of the love and mercy of God, our enormous debt can be stamped "Paid in Full!"

I said "can be" because not everyone's sin debt will be cancelled. The other day I heard someone say that, although everyone will die with their debt of sin entirely paid, how sad it is that most will die without having their personal debt cancelled by Jesus (Matthew 7:13-14). The cross has the potential power to cancel every sin committed by every person who has or will live on this earth. Unfortunately, only a relatively few will accept the offer of forgiveness and obey the gospel to access this grace. While the cross "Paid in Full!" the sins of everyone, only those "in Christ" (see Galatians 3:26-27) receive the actual cancellation of the debt of sin: "in him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us ..." (Ephesians 1:7-8). I dare say that no one would refuse to have their mortgage paid off by doing something as equally simple as God offers us to have our sin debt "Paid in Full!" by obeying the gospel. It is shocking what we will do for a few dollars and won't do for forgiveness of sins!

But for those of us who choose to see the bigger picture, for those of us who do know that saving our souls by the blood of Jesus is the most important thing we can accomplish in this life, how very grateful we should be that Jesus was willing and able to cancel our debt and mark it "Paid in Full!" We cannot thank him enough. But we can keep him the focus of our present life and the hope of our future life. And we can do whatever we can to help as many other people come to know the awesome blessing of the cross. The Big Question... Will We Do It?
